CIVIL ACTION NO. _____

Plaintiffs

COLLECTIVE ACTION

v.

TEXIA PRODUCTIONS, INC.,

Defendant

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

ORIGINAL COLLECTIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

I. SUMMARY

1. Texia Productions, Inc. (“Texia”) violated the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”) by failing to pay Twister Cain, Dickie Garrison, Dennis Motes, Jim Booth (collectively, “the Wranglers”) and other similarly situated plaintiffs (the “Members of the Class”) overtime compensation. 29 U.S.C. § 207. In addition, Texia breached written employment contracts by failing to pay the Wranglers and the Members of the Class according to the agreements. Accordingly, the Wranglers bring this collective action to recover unpaid overtime wages owed to them as individuals and to the Members of the Class pursuant to the FLSA and Texas common law.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and 28 U.S.C. 1367(a).

3. The Wranglers' and the Members of the Class' claims arise under §§ 7(a)(1) and 16(b) of the FLSA and Texas common law. 29 U.S.C. §§ 207(a)(1) and 216(b). In connection with the acts and course of conduct alleged in this complaint, the Wranglers and the Members of the Class engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce. Further, during the three (3)-year period preceding the filing of this Complaint (the "relevant time period"), Texia was an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce within the meaning of the FLSA.

4. Venue is proper in the Western District of Texas because a substantial part of the acts and conduct charged herein occurred in this district.

III. The Parties

5. The Wranglers were employed by Texia in the production of the Walt Disney film, "The Alamo" (the "Film"). The Wranglers were non-exempt employees of Texia within the meaning of the FLSA during the relevant time period for workweeks of forty (40) hours or more. The Wranglers' written consents to this action are attached as Exhibit A. The Wranglers were not paid overtime compensation for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek.

6. The "Members of the Class" are other employees of Texia who were unlawfully denied overtime compensation for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek. These employees worked during approximately the same time period as the Wranglers, worked similar hours, and performed similar job duties. Their consents to this action are attached as Exhibit B.

7. Texia is a California corporation with its principal place of business located in Burbank, California. Texia is an enterprise engaged in commerce and acted, directly or indirectly, in the interest of an employer with respect to the Wranglers and the Members of the Class. Texia may be served with process by serving its registered agent, Marsha L. Reed, at 500 South Buena Vista Street, Burbank, California 91521 or wherever she may be found.

IV. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

8. Texia is a movie production company that employed the Wranglers in the production of the Film. The Wranglers' duties included animal care, control and training. The Wranglers also drove wagons, repaired wagons, and trained others to drive wagons. In addition, the Wranglers' duties included horse-riding training for the actors and "outriding," which means to ride near animals used on the movie set for safety purposes.

9. During the relevant time period, the Wranglers regularly worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a given workweek. Texia, however, did not pay the Wranglers one-and-one-half times their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a given workweek as required by the FLSA.

10. In addition, Texia entered into written employment contracts with the Wranglers that assume five (5)-day, sixty (60)-hour workweeks.

11. Texia's employment contracts guarantee overtime compensation at the rate of one-and-one-half times the applicable hourly rate after forty (40) hours or eight (8) hours per day, and two-times the applicable hourly rate after sixty (60) hours or twelve (12) worked hours in a five (5)-day workweek. Texia failed to compensate the Wranglers in accordance with their employment contracts.

V. THE WRANGLERS' DETAILED FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. Background Facts

12. The Wranglers' normal schedules called for them to work over forty (40) hours per week. The Wranglers are hard-working, dedicated workers who worked as wranglers in the Film.

13. The Wranglers were paid a constant daily rate, regardless of the actual number of hours worked. In addition, they were paid a "costume" stipend of $75 per each day they were required to be in costume, $50 per day that Texia used their truck and $50 per day that Texia used their trailer. Texia also paid for usage of the Wranglers' livestock and mileage on their trucks.

B. Texia Failed to Pay Overtime Compensation in Violation of the FLSA

14. The Wranglers were full-time, non-exempt employees of Texia. As non-exempt employees, the Wranglers were entitled to be paid time and one-half their regular rates for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek. 29 U.S.C. § 207(a).

15. The Wranglers were not compensated for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours at one-and-one-half times their regular rates. As an illustration, for a six (6)-day workweek of 80 hours paid at a rate of $200 per day, a wrangler received $1200 in wages. However, for this same workweek, the FLSA requires $1500 of compensation. Accordingly, Texia's practice of failing to pay the Wranglers overtime compensation was a willful violation of the FLSA.

16. No exemption excused Texia from paying the Wranglers overtime rates for hours worked over forty (40) hours in a workweek. Nor has Texia made a good-faith effort to comply with the FLSA. Rather, Texia knowingly, wilfully, or with reckless disregard carried out its illegal pattern or practice regarding overtime compensation to the Wranglers and the Members of the Class.

C. Texia Breached Its Employment Contracts By Not Paying At Specified Contract Rates

17. The Wranglers entered into written employment agreements with Texia that assumed sixty (60)-hour workweeks.

18. The Wranglers' employment agreements with Texia guarantee overtime pay at the rate of one-and-one-half times their hourly rates after forty (40) hours per week or eight (8) hours per day and two (2) times their hourly rates after sixty (60) hours per week, or twelve (12) worked hours in a five (5)-day workweek. A sample employment agreement is attached as Exhibit C.

VI. COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

19. Other employees have been victimized by this pattern, practice, and policy which is in willful violation of the FLSA and their employment agreements. Many of these employees have worked with the Wranglers and have reported that they were paid the same or a similar set amount each week with no overtime for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek. Thus, from discussions with these employees, the Wranglers are aware that the illegal practices or policies of Texia have been imposed on the Members of the Class.

20. The Members of the Class performed job duties which were similar to those of the Wranglers. Moreover, these non-exempt employees regularly worked more than forty (40) hours per week without receiving overtime compensation. Accordingly, the employees victimized by Texia's unlawful practices are similarly situated to the Wranglers in terms of job duties.

21. Texia's failure to pay overtime compensation at the rates required by the FLSA and the employment agreements result from generally applicable policies or practices and do not depend on the personal circumstances of the Members of the Class. Thus, the Wranglers' experience is typical of the experience of the Members of the Class.

22. The specific job titles or precise job requirements of the various Members of the Class do not prevent collective treatment. All Members of the Class, regardless of their precise job requirements or rates of pay, are entitled to overtime compensation for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek. Although the issue of damages may be individual in character, there is no detraction from the common nucleus of liability facts. Accordingly, the class of similarly situated plaintiffs is properly defined as:

All current and former wranglers (and their equivalents) who were employed by Texia at any time during the three (3)-year period prior to the filing of this action.

VII. CAUSES OF ACTION

23. All allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 22 are incorporated by reference
24. Texia's practice of failing to pay the Wranglers and the Members of the Class compensation at one-and-one-half times the appropriate regular rate for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours was and is in willful violation of the FLSA. 29 U.S.C. § 207(a).
25. Texia's practice of failing to pay the Wranglers and the Members of the Class compensation at one-and-one-half times their hourly rates for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week or eight (8) hours per day was in violation of Texia's employment agreement.
26. Texia's practice of failing to pay the Wranglers and the Members of the Class compensation at two-times their hourly rates for hours worked in excess of sixty (60) hours per week or twelve (12) worked hours in a five (5)-day workweek was in violation of Texia's employment agreement.
27. Accordingly, the Wranglers and all those similarly situated are entitled to all their unpaid wages.

28. Additionally, the Wranglers and the Members of the Class are entitled to an amount equal to all their unpaid overtime wages as liquidated damages, as well as reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of this action. 29 U.S.C. § 216 (b).

VIII. PRAYER

WHEREFORE, the Wranglers request that Defendants be cited to appear and answer and that, upon final disposition, this Court award the Wranglers and the Members of the Class judgment against Defendants for:

- A. their unpaid overtime wages for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours at the rate of one-half times their appropriate regular rates;
- B. their unpaid overtime wages for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours or eight (8) hours per day at the rate of one-half times their appropriate hourly rates;
- C. their unpaid double-time wages for all hours worked in excess of sixty (60) hours or twelve (12) worked hours in a five (5)-day workweek at the rate of two-times their appropriate hourly rates;
- D. an amount equal to all their unpaid wages as liquidated damages;
- E. reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and expenses of this action as provided by the FLSA; and
- F. such other and further relief as may be required by law.

Respectfully submitted,
